News Update April 2019

Foster Care Training in Gomel

As part of our ongoing efforts to have children with disabilities fostered into families, Stephanie Bishop and Elise Lazell spent a week in Belarus last month. They are both senior social work managers from Essex County Council. They delivered training to professionals working in Foster Care and to existing Foster Families and they took part in a very fruitful Round table Discussion with the Director of Education for Gomel Region and others responsible for Foster Care.

In Minsk they met representatives of the Ministry of Education, the National Adoption Centre, UNICEF and the British Embassy. This was Stephanie and Elise's first visit to Belarus, but we hope it will not be their last! We are very grateful to the British Embassy for funding the visit and the training programme.

Summer Recuperative Holidays

Our groups are busy making plans for the summer, when children and teenagers in remission from cancer will come to stay with families in our groups in Endon & Stoke-on-Trent, Stafford, Solihull, Glossop & New Mills and Gloucester. Glossop are still looking for two more host families for 10 year olds.

The Annual Ball to raise funds for the Holiday Camp was a great success as always. Organised chiefly by Lynne Murphy and Brian Hardwick, it is an opportunity for many past and present volunteers, plus other supporters of CCP, to get together for a great evening and raise money to fund young people from institutions to have a holiday in Belarus in the summer. This year almost £1,500 was raised. Special thanks to DJ Ty Carter who gave his services for free and earlier organised another fund raiser for us, and to Denis Moors whose enthusiastic raffle ticket selling raised £400!

We still have space for a few more volunteers. Contact lynnecm@live.co.uk if you would like to know more.

Manual for Survival

Kate Brown is a historian and a lecturer in environmental and nuclear history. She spent 10 years researching this book. She discovered how radioactive food was shipped around the Soviet Union and even sent abroad as humanitarian aid. How reports of massive increases in many diseases were covered up, not just by Soviet authorities, but also by Western Governments and even the United Nations. She believes this is because they were anxious for the effects of radiation from the nuclear bomb tests not to be discovered. This book makes clear the irreversible impact of nuclear fallout on every living thing.
